The Harper's Ferry Sermon. So great was the demand for copies of yes-terday's Sun, containing HENRY WARD BRECHma's sermon on the Harper's Ferry affair, that an extra edition of several thousands was ex-hausted long before noon, and in the afternoon we fessed it in an Extra. Before night not a copy of the Extra remained for sale, and we shall this morning print another edition, endeavoring thus to supply the demand. Meanwhile the same sermon is published in The Independent and will be re-published in The Weekly Sun, on Tuesday morning next.

The Recent Trial of John Brown. THE bot haste with which the trial of this unfortunate man was pressed on, tells poorly for the love of justice, so often claimed by our Southern friends. That BROWN was guilty of some of the crimes that was charged upon him, we do not question. But we do question the policy pursued towards him, whilst he remained in the condition he was; wounded, bleeding, and confined to his bed. More than this, question of his sanity has been raised, and though scoffed at by inconsiderate persons, and even journals, is still a legitimate, pertinent question. To our mind, Brown's entire prodings were prima facia evidence of insanity. We do not propose to discuss the degrees or causes of insanity, but there may have been, and undoubtedly were, causes operating on his mind, that rendered him, at least on the subject of elavery, a monomaniac. This certainly could have been the case, whilst on all other subjects he might be as reasonable and correct as other

But, all this aside, the unreasonable precipitancy with which the trial was pressed on, under the circumstances, is what we complain of. Indeed, it cannot be regarded as more than one degree removed from the code of Judge LYNCH. A man, prostrate and helpless, without friends or means, asking from his couch a short delay to enable him to call his friends to his aid, and make a little preparation to meet his accusers in a court of justice, where he is charged with oflenses involving his life-and asking this too, from a court, a judge high in authority, and refused! Why refused? Was it because he was feared? Were the people in the vicinity in any further danger from a little delay Did the public weal demand an instant sacrifice? Nothing of the kind. There was, there could be, no reason why John Brown should have been forced to take his trial so pre. cipitately, and without any proper means for securing to him a full, clear and impartial investigation of the whole matter.

We are no advocate or apologist for John BROWN, or any other wrong-doer, but would glacily see crime punished as it deserves; but the horor and good name of our common country required that BROWN's request for a short postponement should have been granted, and we cannot but feel that there was a fixed purpose on the part of the authorities, from the first, to hang Brown as speedily as possible. and thus make an example of quick justice. If this be to, we prophecy a signal failure. Outraged justice will summon thousands to her standard, who scorn to fear.

It is, moreover, a matter of serious doubt whether the State of Virginia had a right to try Brows at all, inasmuch as the offences charged were committed within the grounds of the United States Government at Harper's Ferry, and the jurisdiction of the Federal Government over these premises has been fully recognized by Virginia. In 1854, Hon. CALEB CUSHING, then the law officer of the Government, had this questi n as to Harper's Ferry before him, and delivered an able opinion concerning the whole question, and confirming this view of the case. Boston journal quotes from Mr. Cushing's opinion, and says :

"It is rumored that so firmly does he new retain his opinious as there expressed, that he is not unwil-ling if necessary, to sustain them before the Courts of Virginia." This constitutional question can undoubtedly be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States, on a writ of error, and it should be done; and, if any respect be paid to the opinions of mankind, it will be, and sentence of Brown will be deferred until final judgment in that tri-Disgraceful Proceedings. THE election in Baltimore, which took place yesterday, was characterized by the most disgraceful proceedings. According to our dispatches from that city, brute force held complete control of the various election precincts, and riot, bloodshed and murder held there high, carnival Inoffending citizens, in the exercise of their undoubted preregative, were driven from the polls, and in many cases, shot, or stabbed," or terribly beaten with clubs. The police appear to have done very little if anything toward putting a stop to these terrible scenes, or arresting their perpetrators, whether from sympathy with the mob or insufficiency of force, remains to be seen. At any rate, the authorities of the city are, in our judgment, highly culpable, after the many terrible lessons they have received, in not making ample provision for such a demonstration as has just been witnessed.

Can nothing be done to avert, in future, the recurrence of acts so disgraceful to our Americanism? Is there not moral force enough in the State of Maryland, to frown down the bands of lawless desperadoes who thus outrage all propriety in the commercial metropolis of the State? It is a matter which concerns not Baltimore or Maryland alone, but the whole country. Such acts are a bitter commentary on our boasted freedom of the ballot box, and will do more than aught else to bring our republican institutions into disrepute among foreigners. If Baltimore does not wish to retain the credit of being the worst governed city on this continent, let her purge herself of the bands of organized murderers, who have made her name a sterch in the nostrils o' all fair-minded men, both at home and abroad.

The American Minister in China.

Nor a little speculation is being indulged in as to how and when Mr. WARD got to Pekin. The best information on the subject would seem to justify the belief that he went there immediately after the battle at Peiho, and was well received. It matters but little how he reached there, though we do not credit many of the stories put in circulation on that point. But that be is there, and that our relation with that Empire will soon be placed on a most satisfactory footing, we make no doubt. Indeed we should be surprised if Mr. WARD should fail to accomplish all that our people have a right to expect under the terms of the bargaia between the Celestial authorities and Mr. WARD's predecessor. That England feels jealous of our position in China is evident from the uncalled-for remarks of their journals; but it only proves that the course of policy pursued by the American Government in its intercourse and dealings with such nations as China and Japan, is better calculated to succeed than the overbearing policy pursued by our trans atlantic neighbors. Whilst the previous negotiations were going on, we were abused and denounced for not quarreling with China, but then, as now, our true policy was not to quarrel. Indeed, we had no ground for so doing. And furthermore, it is evident, that China seeks not to quarrel with this country, from the fact, that at the battle of Peiho, the Americans rendered signal service to the English, and for which China might have said, "Your participation in those proceedings is a sufficient justification for not treating you with that courtesy you otherwise would have been entitled to." Yet we hear no complaint, but on the contrary, find our Minister peaceably and quietly pursuing the objects of his mission with apparently every facility afforded him that could reasonably be expectd. Whatever course may be pursued by the English and French towards China, we must remain passive and the friends of all parties. If England and France choose their own policy and act upon it, they at least cannot blame us for doing the same, and if they find cause to regret theirs, we have reason to be satisfied with our own. If their policy is to destroy, ours should be to build up.

The American barque Augusta Majhew, Thorr, master, from New York, bound to Havana with an assorted carge of merchandise, got ashore at Brown Rock on the 6th instant, at 19 P. M. After making every exertion to get the vessel off, and failing in the attempt, the captain took the assistance of wreckers, who labored four days to extricate the vessel, being obliged to take out the cargo. Captain Tuone arrived here on the 16th and has had a survey on his vessel, which is found to be very little injured. He is now taking in eargo to proceed on his voyage. Salvage on vessel and cargo has been settled by mutual agreement for £14,500. Wreck master's fee, £20. GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE residence of Mrs. PETER G. STUTVESANT in Harrison township, opposite Bellville, New Jersey, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night and robbed of about $500 worth of plate, silver ware, jewelry, &c. Some of the plate was very valuable, and had been brought from Europe many years since.

Junoz Gould, of Troy, came near being drowned Monday, by accidentally stepping off the Hudson River Railroad ferry boat and falling into the basin. He was soon rescued by one of the boat hancs.

EXCAVATIONS are being made in the vicinity of Cohoes, with a view of finding coal. The work of excavating commenced several weeks ago on the east bank of the Mohawk river, directly opposite the village, and is being continued already a shaft of some 35 or 40 feet has been made-cut through slate rock, the outside of which has a yellowish appearance, but as the shaft progresses inward, it gradually assumes the color of coal. Pieces of the cut taken from different parts, bear a striking resemblance to coal-quite black, brittle and shiny. So close is the resemblance to it, that a casual glance is not sufficient to distinguish; but when cut with a knife it presents a whitish appearance.

The Clerk then asked Mr. Baows if he had any thing to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him.

Mr. Baows immediately rose, and in a clear, distinct voice said:—

"I have, may it please the Court, a few words to say. In the first place, I deny everything but what I have all along admitted, of a design on my part to free slaves. I intended, certainly, to have made a clean thing of that matter, as I did last winter, when I went into Missouni, and there took slaves, without the snapping of a gun on either side, moving them through the country, and finally leaving them in Canada. I designed to have done the samething again, on a larger scale. That was all that I intended. I never did intend murder or treason, or the destruction of property, or to excite or incite slaves to rebellion, or to make insurrection; I have another objection, and that is, that it is unjust that I should suffer such a penalty, had I interfeed in the manner which I admit, and which I admit has been fairly proved, for I admire the truthfulness and candor of the greater portion of the witnesses who have testified in this case. Had I so interfered in behalf of the rich, the powerful, the intelligent, the so called great, or in behalf of any of their friends, either father, mother, brother, eister, wife or children, or any of that class, and suffered and sacrificed what I have in this interference, it would have been all right, every man in this Court would have been all right, every man in this Court would have been all right, every man in this Court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every man in this court would have been all right, every t

Baltimore, Nov. 2.—7 he State election is now progressing. There is a great struggle in all the Wards as far as heard from. The 3d Ward poils are blocked by rowdies, and the police are doing nothing. In the 10th Ward, Thomas Martin, the Reform Judge, has been intimidated and compelled to leave, and Mr. Kirsley, who was appointed by acting Mayor Mayo, and rejected by the Council, has been re-spocinted. The Reformers have been driven off. James Jeffers, son of Madison Jeffers, was shot in the side and beaten over the head by some Reformers whom he had maltreated. In the 15th Ward, Adam B Kyle, Jr., merchant, of No. 85 Hanover st., Reformer, was shot in the temple and was dying a few moments ago. George Kyle, who came to the receive of his brother, was shot dangerously. In the 14th Ward, there is a desperate struggle. The Reformers resisted with arms. Noray Whitz, alias Jas. Johnson, a nototious rowdy, was shot dead with a pistol ball. Two other rowdles, named Harris, alias Jas. Johnson, a nototious rowdy, was shot dead with a Diffy, were shot in the leg. Dr. R. took refuge in a store, when the rowdies broke in the windows, and tried to capture him, but fortunately they were not successful.

Judge Gires, of the U. S. District Court, met Sheriff Crammer in the street this forencon, and told him in decided terms that he was to be accountable for all the blood that was shed to-day. As a judge and lawyer he told the Sheriff he had the authority, and that it was his duty to interfere.

Dr. ROHINSON, of the Central Reform Committee, came to the 11th Ward polls and announced that the Reformers had been driven from every Ward, except that and the 5th, and counselled the Reformers there to withdraw to avoid further bloodshed; whereupon Dr. Thomas, Reform Judge, retired, and the contest was abandoned. Previously, the Reformers throughout the city withdrew, leaving the polls in the hands of the dominant party.

There are numerous reports of minor outrages on the private rights of citizens in several wards.

In the Second Ward, a man named Charles Barkarn, was shot in the hip. In the Fifth Ward, a man, I ame unknown, was dreadfully beaten.

The most reliable account is, that Mr. Parson was assault d at Govanstown, the Ninth District of Baltimore county. One account says he was beaten by an Irishman. It is difficult, in the face of so many reports, to arrive at the truth.

He has partially made arrangements with one of the steamship companies to connect with its line at Acapulco, thereby affording a direct steam communication on that entire coast twice a month.

The dispatches from Consul Black to the State Department, show that Oanson Charac was most arrectously murdered in Mexico, by officers belonging to the Church party. All that was in President's power to do will be, or has been done, in view of that crime. The station of the Overland Mail Company at the "Point of the Mountain," situated about 16 miles from Tueson, was visited by a band of Apaches on the 5th inst. There were a persons at the station at the time. The party of Indians numbered 36 warriors, on their way, as usual, into Sonors on a thieving excursion. Upon showing a white flag, they were allowed to come up. They demanded tobacco, wheat and corn; their wants were supplied as far as possible, the persons at the station giving them all the fobacco they had, in addition, to the little wheat and corn they had on hand, with the exception of sufficient to make one meal for them the next day. Taking a fancy to the buckles on the harness, they soon stripped it of all it had, and finding nothing more they wanted, left, taking with them a large number of sacks, and a bake oven to parch their wheat in.

This was pursued for years, and it resulted in impregnating the glands beneath the tongue, which terminated in cancerous ulcerations. At first it was not regarded with any anxiety, but inflammation was an attendant evil, and the immediate cause of death. The roots of the tongue ulcerated, and the throat sympathized with them, until it was almost impossible to swallow or breathe. The only nourishment taken for some months previous to his death was of a liquid character; even that, at last, could not be received, so swollen and to its death was of a inquire character; went that, at last, could not be received, so swollen and inflamed was the seat of the disorder. One Man Killed and Three Missing

The steamer Champion, Capt. JOHN BROWN, of the New York and New Haven Line, which left this port about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, bound to New Haven, when off Mattinacock Point, about 5 'clock, came in collision with the screw steamer Al batross, from Providence, cutting the Champton down below her water line, and she immediately began to sink. The Arbatross struck her about ten feet forward of the wheel house, on the larboard side, cutting through to the boilers. The boilers instantly exploded with a loud report, and immediately fter, amid the bissing of the scalding steam thus le cose, could be heard the cry of one of the firemen calling for belp. Efforts were made to rescue him, but it was found to be impossible, and he is num-bered among the lost. His name was not ascer-

The passengers were nearly all in their berths a the time, and a scene of wild confusion ensued, mer and women rushing out of the cabins and state-rooms in their night clothes, and clutching at the lifepreservers, settees, and other moveable articles, exsecting to be obliged to swim. It was still quit dark, and it was some minutes before the cause of alarm could be explained. By this time the Albatros was seen near the Champion, and their fears were quieted. Every facility was afforded the passengers not to be seriously injured, and in a short time all who wished to leave had an opportunity of doing so, much of their personal baggage, in the confusion of the moment, being left behind. The steamer Croton, bound for New York, soon came along, and took off the passengers remaining on the Champion, as well as some who had taken refuge on the Albatross, and brought them to this city. Three of the passengers are missing, and are sup posed to have been lost. One of them is thought to be a Mr. STEELE, of New Haven, the others are unknown. The Champion had on board twenty or thirty passengers, and a crew of eight or ten men. In addition to the passengers on board, she had a large amount of freight, including four horses and eight mules. The animals, of course, were all drowned. None of the baggage of the passenger. vas saved, and many of them escaped with but very ittle clothing. Captain Hopymeyer, of the Croton and Capt. Jorus, of the Albatross, supplied such garments to the sufferers as they were able to.

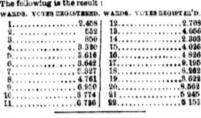

Within twenty minutes from the time of the disaster, the Champion sunk till her upper deck was un der water. She was then taken in tow by the Alba tross and steamer Acton, and finally grounded of Red Spring Point, where she now lies, and the Company have dispatched a steamer and force of men to wave the freight and beggage.

The Champton does not belong to the regular line of New Haven boats, but was supplying the place of the steamer Traveler, which was laid up on account of having been run into the night previous by a chooner. The Albatross is a freight propeller be longing to Providence, and is said to have been heavily leaded. The Champion is some ten or twelve years old. Until she is reised it cannot be certainly nown that the missing passengers are drowned. Capt. Jones, of the Albatross, states that the Champion was first seen at a point and a half on their starboard bow, and should have kept he course, passing to the northward of the propeller, in stead of which, the steamer put her helm hard-a por and came square across the propeller's bow, which struck the Champion nearly amidships.

POLITICAL - DEMOCRATIC RALLY AT THE VOLKS THEATRE.—The Democratic Rally was held at the Volks Theatre, situated on Fourth street, between First and Second avenues. The hall was filled at an early hour, and at a little before eight o'clock a procession marched in, led by a band of musicians, and bearing banners incribed, "For Senator—BREMAED KELLY." The stage vers occupied by a large number of prominent peliticians, and at length the meeting was called to order by Judge STEERS, who nominated Coroner W. SCHIRMER President. A long list of vice presidents, commencing with E. F. PURDY and C. A. FRANCIS, together with a list of secretaries, was read. Mr. S. Manos then read a series of resolutions condemnatory of the Re-State and County nominations, and especially of BENARD KELLY. They were adopted. A letter from Sheriff Jony KELLY, expressive of his sorrow a being unable to attend the meeting, and full approv JOHN VAN BUREN also excused himself in the same

Hon. JOHN COCHRARE was then introduced. He eulogized the character of BERNARD KELLY, and alluded to the heavy expenditures of the Republicaus, and the necessity for enormous taxation. At this point a disturbance rose in the centre of the hall, two men appeared to get into a scuffle first, then a dozen more, and in a moment the circle of the struggling crowd had enlarged almost to the extent of the hall, but it was over almost as quickly as it had begun, the disturbers were promptly "punched" and hustled out, and the speaker, remarking it as merely a instance of the irrepressible conflict, again proceeded. He defended the right of each State to self-regulation, charged the Republican party with treason, and SEWARD with being the leader of the "black and bloody band."

On the conclusion of Mr. Cocurant's remarks, FERNANDO WOOD was loudly called for, and that gentleman soon appeared, and was warmly received. He carnestly commended Mr. KELLY to the voters of the district, and went into a lengthy exposition of the principles of the Democratic and Republican parties. He was followed by Dr. MUCKLE and others, in German, and the meeting adjourned.

A CHANCE FOR POLITICAL CAPITAL,-Im mediately after the commencement of Mayor Tim-mann's administration, several hundred parties were ndicted for policy dealing. Treese cases went into the Supreme Court, on a demurrer, and there, it is said, they yet remain involved in obscurity. It is said that a number of the indicted parties are active and prominent politicians.

ASTRONOM.CAL OBSERVATORY IN CENTRAL PARK.—We have received a long communication on this subject, which, after setting forth many excellent reasons why this work should be prosecuted to completion, says that the provisional trustees appointed under the admirable charter granted by the Legislature, now that our prominent citizens are about returning to town, promise to present anew to the public, the subscription for the Astronomical Observatory in Central Park. May they meet with generous response.

The whole amoun is capable of containing is 725.000 cubic feet, so that it is now but a little over one twelfth full. Mr. Lows has determined, as the weather continues so fair, to keep on inflating, and about 40,000 more fee will be passed in to-day. There is no perceptible leakage. The crowd of visitors is as great as ever. and the tent is constantly thronged about the handsome "Leontine" life-boat and the little caloric engine. During the day, one of Mr. Lowe's assistant was overcome by the sickening smell of the varnished cloth and the gas escaping from the supply-pipe, and fainted.

A CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE REPUSES AN HONOR .- One of the Target Companies invited JOEN COMMERFORD, one of the candidates for the Asstubly, to go on the excursion with them. Cox-MURPORD declined in a very short and pointed reply, stating that he knew they were his friends-that h respected them, but as a public canditate he could not accept the invitation. He says, "Whilst I regret that a sense of public duty compels me to for go the pleasure of the social intercourse which will folw your excursion, I am nevertheles satisfied tha in the exercise of your discrimination, as patriotic citizens, you would justly condema me with being actuated with the desire of using you for the base purpose of advancing my own individual interests n reaching the position for which I am a candi

No bodies have as yet been found in the lower cabin, which is probably filled up with a large quantity of mud. Men ere still employed in rethe damaged furniture and cargo. Only a few pack ages of light freight have been recovered, a large uantity having floated away.

The boliers and machinery which were brought to this city on Tuesday, are at the Morgan Iron Works, where they are undergoing repair. A portion of the passengers' baggage, together with some heavy freight which is considerably damaged, and would not float, has been raised by means of a Derrick, and will be sent to this city in the course of a day or two. WE note a little incident of recent occurrence as a warning to those keeping accounts with banks to be more careful of their cancelled checks and other paper from which their signatures may be imitated. A young employe of a banking house was seen leaving the place with a cancelled check in his hand. One of the members of the firm, upon questioning him closely, learned that the boy had met in a saloon the evening previous, a man, who, after getting at inkling of the extent of the business of the firm, offered to pay the boy $100 if he delivered to him one of the cancelled checks of the house.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2, 1859.—To the Editor of the Sun:—Dank Sin—I think it would be well if the Captains of the 17th and 18th Precincts of the Metropolitan Police District, would instruct their men to keep a better look out on the First avenue, between 10th and 10th streets. It is a fact which cannot be doubted, and which is well known to the residents of that portion of these Wards, that there as large number of young boys who are daily and nightly to be seen congregated on the different corners of the avenue, insulting alsonet every person who is compelled to pass them, and who, also, when "darkness resigns," take advantage of the same, to commit petty larcenies, with which they are enabled to gain sustenance. By giving this a place in your widely circulated journal, you will confer a favor of many readers of your paper, and on, Yours very respectfully, J. J. G.

The parties are both young, and it is said formerly resided in New Jersey. The husband is a physician, and the wife is said to be the authoress of certain revelations on Romanism, as practiced in numeries, from one of which she is reported to have escaped, and since has again embraced Catholicism, which is reported to be the cause of the present troubles, the husband being an uncompromising Protestant. Board of Education.

THE BIBLE QUESTION UP AGAIN.—The regular meeting of the Board of Education took place last evening. Mr. Cooren was elected Finance Cierk. An appropriation of $2.500 was made to repair the colored Ward School No. 2, which recently had been damaged by fire. A communication of the school officers of the 6th Ward, was presented by Mr. Banser, asking for the payment of the teachers of that Ward, who by resolution of the Board, were deprived out of their payment for the violation of one of the by-laws, which provides for the reading of the Scriptures at the commencement of the school. He ved out of their payment or the violation of one of the by-laws, which provides for the reading of the Scriptures at the commencement of the school. He coffered the following resolution: That the President and Cark be authorized to sign drafts for those teachers, whose salaries had been withheld for September, except one to be selected by common consent and that one should be made the case for legal adjudication. This resolution was signed by all the school officers of the 6th Ward. Com. Barrey moved its adoption. A long and animated discussion arose, and a motion to lay the matter on the table was lost, by a vote of 15 ayes and 23 nays. Mr. BLOOMFILD, then offired a reselution to fine those teachers for violation, for not reading the Scripture, with the exception of the principal of ward No. 5, who should be sacrificed to test the law by legal course. Mr Davasnows then moved to adjourn, which motion created considerable excitament, and another lengthy debate, amidst which, the call to adjourn was made; but finally the Board adjourned, by a vote of 15 in the negative and 21 in the affirmative.
